City, Chamber and Moose FM support local restaurants with takeoutfsj.com

The City of Fort St. John, Fort St. John and District Chamber of Commerce, and Moose FM and Energeticcity.ca have partnered to support local restaurants with the launch of takeoutfsj.com.

Find a listing of restaurants in Fort St. John and their menus for all in one place, and enjoy a locally prepared meal today!

“Once again, our local restaurants are being severely impacted by the restrictions due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Through the Mayor’s Standing Committee on Community Economic Recovery and this partnership, we are encouraging our community to support our local restaurants through this challenging time.” - Mayor Lori Ackerman, City of Fort St. John.

“The Fort St. John and District Chamber is excited to partner in the development and promotion of the ‘takeoutfsj.com’ platform, which will assist restaurants through ongoing operating restrictions and into recovery. We encourage all restaurants to utilize this free online service and we encourage our community to support our businesses.” - Cheryl Montgomery, Executive Director, Fort St. John and District Chamber of Commerce.

"It's more important than ever to support the restaurants in our community. We hope this website will make it easier for residents to order takeout from the many local restaurants in Fort St. John." - Adam Reaburn, Owner / General Manager, Moose FM / Energeticcity.ca

Advertising for this initiative is supported through Moose FM, energeticcity.ca, Sun FM, The Bear, and Pure Country 890.
